AFFIRMATION OF FAITH: "The Apostles' Creed"

I BELIEVE in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth; And in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy Catholic Church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

*Dad, Here are the pictures from our last visit. They turned out good.
We have changed our trip & Phoenix from the 15th of November & the 22nd and plan to come to Alpine on the night of the 14th. I will be providing training until 5 PM on the 14th so will leave after that.
Ken is proceeding with the Mary and may go in 4 or 5 weeks. We are still thinking about shopping.
You could probably meet Ken then (between) if he is not gone yet. Talk to you soon. Love, Chris + Martin*

"The Nicest Person I Ever Met"

The nicest person I ever met was a friend of my grandmother's. I met him in Texas. He knew lots of jokes and had all of them numbered and lettered, but the amazing thing was that he remembered them all. He was funny and really nice. I just wish I could meet him again.

Editor, The Alpine Avalanche:

To the People of Alpine and the Big Bend:

How does one put on paper the deep gratitude felt by our family for all the love, the caring and support provided by all of you to our dad, Ollie, who passed away the first of this month.

It is more than just the appreciation these past couple of months...it has been occurring ever since our parents came to Alpine. It is what made Peg and Ollie decide to make their home here after returning to Ohio following World War II. It took them only a few weeks of being away to know they wanted to spend the rest of their lives in Alpine.

I have told many people how proud we have been of all the risks dad took. Four years ago he was told he only had a year and a half to live because of the lung problems. He made a decision to carry his oxygen and keep on doing what he liked to do. He never thought he would lose my mother first...he did...and he kept going.

He took a lot of risks, but he had the support of the people around him...the people of Alpine. You encouraged his humor and his participation in all things.

I feel very blessed to have had some very special times with my parents the past few years. We returned to where they grew up in Ohio and where their families came from in Scotland and Wales. Yet the trips and times that were most important to them included Indian Lodge, Fort Davis, the Big Bend and all the beautiful areas around Alpine. They loved "showing off" the mountains, the antelope and mostly the friendly folks from their hometown.

Several people have told me that Christmas and New Year's will not be easy in the future having lost both parents around that time of year. I have responded that there has always been too much joy and happiness shared with my parents during that time to ever make it difficult. It may just make the reminder stronger.

We will all be back often. You all mean so very much to us I must come back to see the country mom and dad loved so dearly...watch the clouds roll over the mountains, the clean, crisp air, the folks who always wave back on the roads...God's country.

God bless you all!

Love, Martin "Buddy" Theophilus

Every week there is something new on the lighted bulletin board across from the hospital business office. That is because Ollie Theophilus has been there. A recent volunteer, Ollie works with the Inservice Education Department, keeping the bulletin board filled with health news, notes of appreciation or community events, as his own special volunteer project. Ollie has created a small center of news and interest that makes a few minutes of the day more pleasant for visitors and employees alike.
