

Dear Martin,

Greetings of the season. I've been extremely negligent re. letter-writing, but did at least want to send you my best wishes for the holiday & let you know my whereabouts.

I'm an Asst Professor at Case Western Reserve Univ. Schl of Medicine - Cleveland work in 1 of the 2 teaching hospitals, do some teaching, patient care & research. I'm finding Cleveland rich in cultural activities & the people warm & not the weather. Have a great place to live in a lovely old tree-lined neighborhood & a new Mazda RXT - my life & life style definitely improved. Do let me hear from you - business-wise, work-wise & daily life-wise.

Hope you are well & thriving.

*With best wishes
for the holidays
and the coming year*

*Love,
Jean*

Dear Martin,

Greetings of the season. I've been extremely negligent re. letter-writing, but did at least want to send you my best wishes for the holiday & let you know my whereabouts.

I'm an Asst Professor at Case Western Reserve Univ. Sch. of Medicine - Cleveland - work in 1 of the 2 teaching hospitals, do some teaching, patient care & research. And am finding Cleveland rich in cultural activities & the people warm & not the weather. Have a great place to live in a lovely old tree-lined neighborhood & a new Mazda RX7 - so life & life style definitely improved. Do let me hear from you - business-wise, work-wise & daily life-wise.

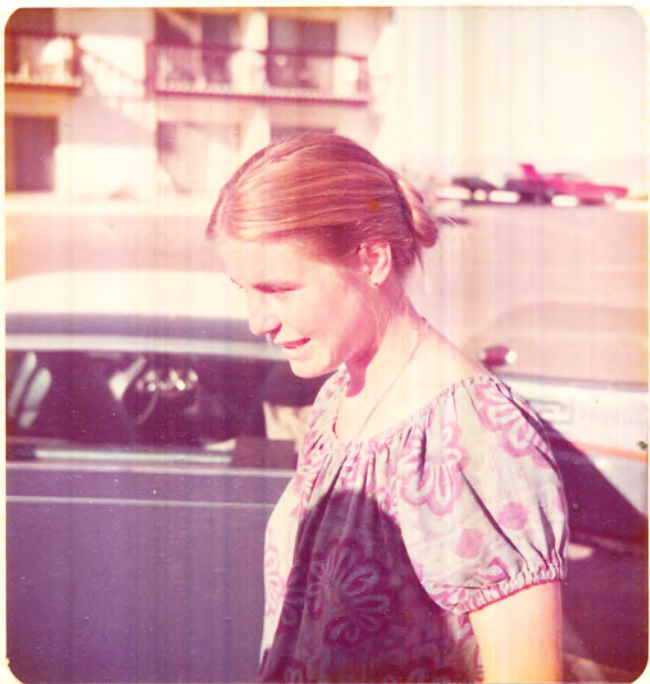

Hope you are well & thriving. What do you know/hear re. the old hill...

With best wishes
for the holidays
and the coming year

Love,

What made us friends in the long ago
When first we met?

Well I think I know;
The best in me and the best in you Hailed each other because they knew that always and always since life began Our being friends was part of God's plan.

Martin,

I feel like we have
said all the "thank yous"
and "I care" but here is one more try.

I thank you from the depths of my heart and soul for your friendship.
You are truly a gift.
I only hope I can repay you in some way for your caring and support.

May we always be as close as we are today
and especially when we are both no longer in our crazy phases. I love you my friend,
Paula

DEAR OMT -

Thought I would surprise you with a letter. Surprise! Surprise! Anyway, I was taking care of some much needed correspondence and just can't stop writing. It is probably because I dictated on about 10 cassette tapes today. From 8:30 - 4:30 with time out for a diet cola and 2 burritos. I am still not caught up and it makes a large dent

I am trying to be on my diet but keep seeing Snickers in my mind. I think I am in desperate need of the enclosed ad!

Roso is feeling better and I am planning to take him to the beach on Thursday. Hopefully he will not overdo it, running around.

Hope you had a good week in Abilene, old Abilene. Take care and drive carefully. Roso and I are looking forward to seeing your smiling face.

 I've been looking at this a long time <sup>WEEKS</sup>
 Am willing it to you:

Many of our miseries are merely comparative; we are often made unhappy, not by the presence of any real evil, but by the absence of some fictitious good.

I wish you happiness
& butterflies, chocolate
fudge sundaes and memories. I sincerely enjoyed spending
time with both of you.

Joy & love,
Mary Anne

happiness is a butterfly which when pursued is just beyond your grasp... but if you will sit down quietly, may alight upon you.

I never really felt like you were properly thanked for taking Cayce + Ron + I out to dinner.

Thanks so much... As soon as it's financially feasible (translates: "NOT BROKE"!), we'll reciprocate.

Love, Deborah + Ron

Thanks for another good year. You and your staff have helped 1984 to be a good one I appreciate all your hard work and your interest. May 1985 be A very HAPPY NEW YEAR.....

you. Anyhow, it is almost as good, just wishing it ....

I found an old friend here I have known 4-5 yrs. We will continue to remind each other of the strength and peace and love in each other. She

Dear friend, Thank, I am grateful for your having encouraged me to come to this seminar. I have learned a great deal and will use it the rest of my life. Wish you had been.

Hope your Christmas is filled with lots of homemade happiness!

Merry Christmas! Have a happy

one!
