TIPPING SUGGESTIONS

- Hotels Divide 15% among those giving personal service.
- Restaurants 15% of bill, if not already added.
- Barber Shops & Beauty Parlors .. 5 New Pence should be given where 25 cents is customary in U.S.
- Porters 5 New Pence per bag.
- Taxis 15% of fare, minimum 3 New Pence

Look at your sales slip. There is a rate quote:

UK £ = 2.00, FF = .1845

To find the units per dollar, you divide:

$$\begin{aligned} $1.00 \div 2.00 &= .50 \text{ pounds per US$} \\ $1.00 \div .1845 &= 5.42 \text{ francs per US$} \end{aligned}$$

Now that you have both the rate and the units per dollar, you can get an idea of how much things will cost.

For example:

Perfume in Paris costs 550 FF

SEPT 4 - LONDON CUNARD INT'L HOTEL (01) 741-1555

SEPT. 5

Day 1, Sun. LONDON - YORK - DARLINGTON. Departure at 8 a.m. from the Cunard International Hotel, Shortlands, London W6. Our private deluxe motorcoach takes us north, through Epping Forest and the lush East Anglian countryside to Cambridge, originally a Roman fort on the Cam River and since the 13th century the site of England's most reputable university. Past Stamford and over the Yorkshire Moors we head for York. We visit the Minster with its medieval stained-glass windows, and the city's fascinating maze of narrow streets - including the famous Shambles, once a row of butcher shops and exactly two steers wide. Overnight is in Darlington, terminal of the world's first passenger railway. D

SEPT. 6
Day 2, Mon. DARLINGTON - EDINBURGH, SCOTLAND. This morning we trace the remains of Emperor Hadrian's Wall which was built from coast to coast to defend Roman England from the marauding northern tribes. Enjoying the sights of Northumberland National Park, we cross the border into Scotland where the Abbey ruins at Jedburgh and Sir Walter Scott's Abbotsford House are visited on the way to Edinburgh. EB

SEPT. 7
Day 3, Tue. EDINBURGH. Our guided morning tour of this "Prince of Cities" takes us down the Royal Mile from impressive Edinburgh Castle to the Palace of Holyrood. Along the way we see the Old Town, Scott Memorial, the home of John Knox, Princes Street and the Queen's Royal Apartments. The afternoon is free, and tonight is our chance to sample the Scots' cuisine and to admire the skills of kilned Highland dancers. EB

SEPT. 8
Day 4, Wed. EDINBURGH - INVERNESS. We cross the Firth of Forth and enter the Scottish Highlands at Perth, a pretty market-town on the Firth of Tay. Via Glenshee and Braemar we drive to Balmoral, the Royal Family's residence during the hunting and shooting season. Over Lecht Pass and through lovely Spey Valley we head for Culloden Moor where Bonnie Prince Charlie and the Scottish clans courageously fought the English in 1746. We spend tonight at Inverness, the Highland capital for more than 1,400 years. EB, D

SEPT. 9
Day 5, Thu. INVERNESS - ISLE OF SKYE - OBAN. Spectacular Highland scenery today! Following the shores of Loch Ness for 24 miles, we have time to watch for the mysterious monster. Later, at Kyle of Lochalsh we board a ferry for the Isle of Skye - homeland of the Clan of MacLeod and largest island of the Inner Hebrides. Our tour takes us all the way to picturesque Portree, and then we return to the mainland. Via Fort William at the foot of 4,406-foot Ben Nevis and the shores of Loch Linnhe we arrive in Oban, a typical fishing-town on Firth Lorne. EB, D

SEPT. 10
Day 6, Fri. OBAN - GRASMERE, ENGLAND. We leave the Highlands as we reach the "Bonnie Banks" of Loch Lomond. Past Glasgow we drive into the history-steeped Lowland Hills. A famous tweed mill in Moffat, and Gretna Green - where the blacksmith used to wed runaway couples - are on our way to the English border. Through the Cumbrian Mountains we then enter the tranquil Lake District. Overnight is at Grasmere, where the poet Wordsworth spent many years of his life.

SEPT. 11
Day 7, Sat. GRASMERE - CHESTER - STRATFORD - LONDON. Two choice stops on our way back to London today. In the morning we visit Chester, where our tour director walks us to the main sights: the Roman ruins, medieval battlements, half-timbered houses and famous "Rows" - shopping galleries at first-floor level. Highlight this afternoon is Shakespeare's Stratford-upon-Avon where we see Anne Hathaway's Cottage. Via Oxford we then return to London. Our tour ends at the Cunard International Hotel around 7 p.m. FR
